INVITATION

Ladies and Gentlemen,

On behalf of Polish Canoe Federation I cordially welcome to Cracow all participants of the Olympic Hopes Regatta Cracow 2018. Since 2002 City of Cracow and Kolna Regatta Course have been the heart of Polish and European Canoe Slalom.

I am convinced that you know Cracow as a city always friendly for sport and tourists.

We guarantee this atmosphere also this year to everyone who would like to come to Cracow to participate in Olympic Hopes Regatta.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Cracow!

Tadeusz Wróblewski
President of Polish Canoe Federation

Cracow – one of the most beautiful city in Poland

Interesting facts about Cracow

Cracow is one of the oldest and one of largest cities in Poland. Situated in the southeast region of the country, on the Wisła (Vistula) River, between the Jura uplands and the Tatra Mountains. Cracow was the capital of Poland for 531 years. Is a city of grand history and magnificent architecture. Cracow is an important center for trade, services, culture, higher education and science.

Cracow has about 755,000 permanent residents and the city conurbation totals some 1,5 million people.

Is a metropolis with the cosmopolitan atmosphere. According to statistics in 2017 Cracow was visited by 13 million tourists. The main reason for visiting are: its historical monuments, recreation, religion and business. Outside the city are: the Wieliczka salt mine, the Tatra Mountains, Częstochowa - the historic city, Auschwitz -Nazi concentration camp and Ojcowski National Park. Inhabitants of Cracow can be counted on - they are well-educated, competent and welcoming. Today Cracow is the preferred residence of eminent artist and cultural figures. This royal city is unofficial cultural capital of Poland. Furthermore is the most recognized Polish location referred as „the Athens of the North” or „the Slavic Rome”.
